DR. SWAYNE'S COMPOUND
SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY:

Another Wonderful Cure of Consumption!
Paovinence, R. I., Sept. 20th, 1845.
Dr. Swayne—Dear Six:—I feel called by a sense of duty I owe to suffering humanity to acknowledge my grateful thanks for the wonderful effects of your "COM-POUND SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY" on me, after having suffered months after months with the most afficting of all diseases—Consumption—with scarcely a ray of hope, or a "heacon light" to guard me against my own horrible farehodings. The circumstance which first led to the awful state of debility was from taking a very heavy "cold," which seemed to his hiself upon the lungs, which gradually grew worse, with profuse night sweat, a backing cough, oppression in the breast, spitting blood, with great general debility. My constitution seemed broken down, and nervous system very much impaired, with all the symptoms of confirmed Consumption. I went to Philadelphia, and was treated there by physicians of the highest respectability, but still grew worse, until they gave me up as incurable, and advised me to go South; but, being very poor, after losing so much time from my work, and having spent all my money on the various "Patent Medicines," which were recommended so highly through the medium of the press, I was unable to take their advice. Being a member of the Order of Odd Fellows, they supplied me with money againtiously to send me to my friends in Saco, Maine. I was treated by physicians of the highest standing there, but received no benefit whatever from them, but gradually grew worse, until my physicians and myself gave up all hopes of my ever recovering, and I felt like one who is about to pass through the val ey of the shadows death. At this "awful junction," I heard of your "COMPOUND SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY," and knowing you to be a regular practising physician in Philadelphia, gave me more confidence in the medicine, so I concluded, as a last resort, to make a trial of it. I sent to your agent, in Boston, and apprehased one bottle, which relieved me

ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS REWARD. RAN AWAY from the subscriber, in Buck-ingham county, Va., on his way South, in June last, Negro TOM. Tom is of dark com-plexion, 27 years old, about 5 feet 8 inches high, has a sear on the left jaw, from the toothache— the skin seems to have grown to the bone.
